

About us

Martin Bernard has been a partner for more than 20 years with a major national law firm. In February 2009, he founded his own law firm which is known today under the name of BDBL AVOCATS INC.

Attorneys and advisors

Courtroom specialists, BDBL's lawyers are renowned litigators as well as trusted advisors to their clients, at every phase of their clients' business activities and relationships.

Construction law

Highly qualified lawyers in construction law, BDBL represents both private and public work providers. Their services include representations before the tribunals, rendering legal opinions, and the drafting and reviewing of construction contracts as well as documents relating to calls for tenders. BDBL's lawyers have a strong grasp of all the problems related to construction law, which include the various municipal and environmental challenges in play today.

Commercial litigation

The members of BDBL's team advise their clients in commercial litigations and extraordinary actions.

BDBL has an approach based on prevention and resolution of conflicts. The members of BDBL are competent, efficient and involved litigators for the best interest of their clients.

Competition law

BDBL is one of the rare Québec law firms specializing in the area of competition law, counselling its clients with regard to the development of compliance programs, and providing them with legal assistance in the course of inquiries into restrictive business practices or criminal offences.

The members of BDBL form a team that specializes in the following areas:

- Civil and commercial litigation
- Construction law
- Municipal law
- Competition law and class actions
- Administrative and disciplinary law

Class actions

BDBL also has a solid experience in the defence of its clients in class actions.

Administrative and disciplinary law

The BDBL team is qualified in administrative and disciplinary law rendering legal opinions, negotiating settlements and representing professionals and professional orders before administrative tribunals.

Municipal law

BDBL serves sophisticated clients including real estate owners, promoters and large corporations in the construction industry and advises them concerning the applicable regulation throughout the different steps of a construction project.

BDBL's Priority

At BDBL, our priority is to thoroughly understand the needs of our clients, and the clients' expectations are the focus of our attention. We believe in our capacity to assert and defend our clients' rights with success. We serve our clients earnestly, resolutely, and with pleasure.
